Ms. DeBarge called the meeting to order at 11:16 a.m.

Agenda Item 1 – Review of prior month’s minutes

Ms. DeBarge opened the meeting by asking if there were any questions or concerns regarding last month’s meeting minutes. No members commented or expressed concerns.

Agenda Item 2 – Item 1806: Standardized Excel Form (6/18/2025 – moved from Operating Committee)

- Action item: Mr. Van Stryk to draft a response to QLAN’s email and send it to Ms. Pranata

Ms. DeBarge asked whether Ms. Pranata had any updates. Ms. Pranata stated that the SCJPC office needed to review the responses for QLAN and asked whether the committee could table the item until next month. Ms. DeBarge agreed.

Agenda Item 3 - Miscellaneous items/New item numbers

Ms. DeBarge asked whether there were any miscellaneous items. Ms. Pranata reported that Accurate Digital Solutions (ADS), the current website provider supporting the SCJPC website, had notified her that they were closing their business. She explained that she had requested an exit plan from ADS but had not yet received it. She stated that the SCJPC would need to secure a new web-hosting provider. Mr. Van Stryk asked whether Ms. Pranata had worked with any of the engineers at ADS and whether the committee might consider hiring them. Ms. Pranata explained that ADS consisted of only two individuals: the owner and a programmer located outside the United States, possibly in the Middle East. She noted that the time-zone differences often made communication difficult.

Ms. Pranata invited members to send any recommendations for web developers or web-hosting companies. She also noted that she had previously obtained a quote from a vendor recommended by Southern California Edison and could follow up with them again.

Ms. DeBarge stated that she would check with Ms. Ray for the name of a company that had previously been shared as a potential resource. Mr. Van Stryk stated that he would also inquire within his networks to identify potential web service providers.

Mr. Treepaisan observed that the primary need might simply be to migrate the existing SCJPC website and host it elsewhere. Ms. Pranata commented that there were uncertainties regarding whether a new developer could interpret the existing code or whether the SCJPC website would need to be rebuilt from scratch. Ms. Pranata stated that the complexity of the transition centered on the database programming. She explained that any new website host would need to ensure that the website search pages correctly connect to the SCJPC database and that additional programming work would be required.

Mr. Van Stryk asked whether the SCJPC owned its domain name and whether the database was stored locally or online. Ms. Pranata confirmed that the SCJPC owns the domain name SCJPC.net, as well as the SCJPC Microsoft SQL database, and explained that a copy of that database is the version hosted on the SCJPC website.

Mr. Van Stryk then asked for clarification regarding the risks if Accurate Digital Solutions were to cease hosting abruptly. Ms. Pranata explained that ADS hosts both the website and the database copy, and that she was awaiting the exit plan, which should outline how responsibility for the website and database would be transferred. Ms. Ortiz asked about the time frame, and Ms. Pranata responded that she was still waiting for information since she had spoken with ADS only the day before the meeting.

Ms. Black inquired about the database being hosted on the SCJPC website. Ms. Pranata clarified that committee staff work exclusively within the SCJPC internal database, which is stored in the cloud on a Microsoft Azure server, while ADS hosts the website and the copy of the database. She added that updated data, such as pole and JPA records, are transferred once a month from the SCJPC internal database to the web server.

Ms. Van Stryk asked whether Ms. Pranata has access to the web server. Ms. Pranata explained that the SCJPC website consists of static pages, such as minutes and agendas, which she can access and manage through administrative permissions, and database search pages, which she cannot access because they require programming knowledge she does not possess.

Ms. Black then asked whether the physical closure of the San Dimas office would affect database storage. Ms. Pranata clarified that the SCJPC database server had already been moved to the cloud, eliminating any concerns about physically relocating equipment.

Ms. Pranata reiterated that she would forward the exit plan to the committee once received and requested that members share any additional recommendations.

There were no further questions or comments.

Agenda Item 4 - Review of Action Items

- Mr. Van Stryk and Ms. Pranata will review the response from QLAN.
- Ms. Pranata will continue gathering recommendations for web developers and new hosting providers. Members with potential recommendations are to forward them directly to Ms. Pranata.
- Ms. DeBarge will follow up with Ms. Ray regarding a previously identified vendor name.
- The committee will await the exit plan from Accurate Digital Solutions.

The meeting adjourned at 11:30 a.m. until April 15, 2026.
